ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Secretary, Information Technology & Communications Department has stated that in order to manage ICT applications effectively in departments that have taken up or would be taking up significant computerization in the near future, Government have decided to train and nurture a group of officers as “Chief Information Officers” (CIOs). The CIOs programme will be a 8 week training programme. First 6 weeks are devoted to in-class modules and thereafter the participants are required to do a real-life e-Governance project in the last 2 weeks of the project module. There will be field visits to e-Governance projects. He has requested to nominate two (2) officers from Finance Department for the forthcoming training.

2. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby nominate Sri K. Venkateswara Rao, Deputy Secretary to Government and Sri K.N. Malleswara Rao, Assistant Secretary to Government, Finance Department for the above training programme.
